University of Hawai'i at Hilo Spring 2018

Undergraduate Student Commencement Speaker Application

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your interest in becoming a candidate for Student Speaker for the Spring 2018 Commencement Ceremony. The person selected will represent the graduating students of the Class of Spring 2018 and will play a very important role in the Commencement Ceremony.

The following section describes the criteria and process to be used for selecting the speaker. Attached is the application itself, which is to be returned to the Humanities Division Office, K-214, by 4pm on Monday, March 12, 2018. If you have any questions, you may contact Rayna Morel at raynam@hawaii.edu.

Please keep this page for future reference.

CRITERIA:

I. High Academic Achievement

The student must demonstrate academic achievement, as evidenced by a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0 from UHH courses at the end of the Fall 2017 semester.

II. University/Community Service

The student must have a record of meaningful University and/or community service.

III. Graduating Senior

The student must have applied for graduation and be graduating this semester as an undergraduate student.

IV. Public Communication Skills

The student must demonstrate the potential to communicate to a large audience on a graduation-related theme in a meaningful, clear, and an expressive manner.

PROCEDURE OF APPLICATION:

Complete the attached brief application and return it to the Humanities Division Office, K-214, by 4pm on Monday, March 12, 2018. Late applications cannot be accepted. Be sure to have your application date and time stamped by one of the Humanities Division secretaries.

- I. Applicants who meet criteria I, II and III, above, will be invited to speak at an audition session to be held between the hours of 1:30-3:00pm on Monday, March 19, 2018 in the conference room of the Humanities Division Office, K-214A. Should you be selected to audition, be prepared to present a 3-minute speech you would give at the graduation ceremony. There will be a small group of judges present, but you will speak as if you are addressing those assembled at the graduation ceremony itself. You may speak extemporaneously or use a manuscript. There will be no microphone at the audition. Do note that this is an actual audition, so please come prepared.
- II. Invitations to speak at the Monday March 19th audition will be extended by e-mail. If you have not been reached by Thursday, March 15th, please contact Rayna Morel by e-mail (raynam@hawaii.edu or at 932-7086) to learn what time you have been scheduled to speak on the afternoon of March 19th. Please be on time for your scheduled audition and wait in the hallway outside of Humanities Division office until you are greeted.
- III. Final selection by the judges will be based upon the sample speeches given on March 19th. Both content and delivery will be considered (along with academic achievement and service in especially close competition).
- IV. The student selected to be the Student Commencement Speaker will receive assistance from UH-Hilo faculty in refining their speech and its delivery. The student selected must email the speech to the committee in a timely manner.
- V. The student selected to be the Student Commencement Speaker must practice with a podium and microphone at the UHH theatre, UCB 100, or Wentworth 1 (whichever is available) at least one time, specifically during the last week of instruction or finals week. The selected student will receive assistance from faculty members.
